Foundation Update

We Receive More Than We Give

Why do we often say "yes" when asked for donations to worthy causes? Because it makes us feel good! Research shows that giving has several benefits:

- Enhances our sense of happiness and well-being.
- Reduces stress and anxiety.
- Improves physical health and promotes longevity.
- Fosters a stronger sense of community.
- Encourages spiritual growth by allowing us to impact the world around us positively.

Congratulations to Our May IRMI Scholarship Winners!

The NAIW Legacy Foundation entered into a reciprocal partnership in 2024 with IRMI (International Risk Management Institute) to award an NAIW Legacy Foundation Scholarship for a Certified Leadership Professional (CLP) program and a one-year IAIP membership.

Congratulations to our May winners:

- Blake Newman, a broker with Aon in New York City, NY
- Je'Quan Dias-Hines, an underwriter/trainee with Surety Bonds in Atlanta, GA
- Kym Day, a risk manager with Koch Companies in Newton, KS

Gift Cards Needed!

Gift Cards Need for Convention Giveaway

We will again have a gift card giveaway but we need cards! The cards should be from national facilities so they can be used across the country. If you submit Amazon cards, please ensure the amount is on the cards.

You can mail them to:

Geraldine Plott
4913 Fulton Court
Concord, NC 28025

NAIW Legacy Foundation
2501 Jolly Rd, Suite 110
Okemos, MI 48864

You can also bring them with you to Convention, to give to Geraldine!

Support the Toby Keith Foundation at the 2025 IAIP Convention

IAIP members can support the Toby Keith Foundation during our International Convention in June. This Oklahoma City-based foundation provides no-cost housing for pediatric cancer patients through OK Kids Korral.

You can contribute by donating online at Continue to Give or bringing dental supplies (toothpaste, mouthwash, floss, toothbrushes) and books (new or gently used) for all ages to the convention.
